

whereby “material resulting from forestry operations carried out on land to which an Integrated Forestry Operations Approval (IFOA) applies under Part 5B of the Forestry Act 2012” is eligible for subsidy when burnt. That’s most material from most public forests in NSW logged under a Commonwealth State Regional Forest Agreement, (which is most logging mass from public forests in NSW)